

Mariana Ferreira is Manager of Trade Intelligence in Uruguay XXI since March 2011. Mariana holds a BA in Economics from the Faculty of Economics and Management (UDELAR) and MA in Economics from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile (PUC).

Mariana is a professor of Macroeconomics at the Faculty of Economics and Management since 2003 and professor of Economic Policy in the Masters in Economics from the same institution. In addition, She is a Professor of the Diploma in Finance from the National Chamber of Commerce and Services.

Prior to his work in Uruguay XXI, she was Manager of the Department of Economic Consulting CPA / Ferrere. She specializes in macroeconomics and finance issues and has extensive experience in financial and economic advisory firms, sectoral reporting, forecasting models and economic evaluation of programs, among others.