Jaime Miller took office as Executive Director of Uruguay XXI in April 2020.

He holds an MBA from IEEM, the business school of Universidad de Montevideo and is a CPA graduated from Universidad de la República.

Since 2003 he has developed a professional career in the Uruguayan company Zonamerica, the main business and technology park in Uruguay that has been operating under the Free Trade Zones Law since 1990.

Miller was Director of Business Development and later General Manager, a position he held until 2018. After leading the process of installing Zonamerica in Cali, in 2018 he took over as CEO of Zonamerica Colombia until 2020.

Prior to that, he worked for six years at PriceWaterhouse Coopers in the area of auditing and nine years in charge of a company that distributes imported products. He also has experience as an entrepreneur in the start-up of a domestic airline.
