Dr. Antonio Carámbula

Executive Director of Uruguay XXI

Antonio Carámbula Sagasti was appointed executive director of Uruguay XXI as of March 1, 2015.

He holds a PhD in Technology and Veterinary Medicine from the Universidad de la República and also studied Business Administration at the Universidad Católica del Uruguay. Antonio Carámbula is recognized nationally and internationally for his experience in inter-institutional articulation in public and private business.

Until his appointment, he served as Undersecretary of the Ministry of Tourism and Sports. Previously, between 2005 and 2009, he was general director of this portfolio. Carámbula was representative of the Ministry of Tourism and Sport in the National Aeronautical Board, in the National Board of Drugs and vice-president in the Commission for the Eradication of Violence in Sport.

Between 1995 and 2005, he served as director of the Montevideo City Hall in the area of decentralization. He was also a member of the Board of Directors of the Ecumenical Service for Human Dignification (SEDHU), which represents the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) in Uruguay.
